5. PRIOR LEARNING

Recognition of prior learning is extremely beneficial to you if you want credits for either completed or incomplete learning. The Seminary recognises the advantages of saving students money and time, and is willing to grant credits where they are due. So, fill in this part of the form in as much detail as possible; it could save you a great deal of time and money.

Definition of terms:

- Accredited learning: Prior learning that has taken place at an accredited tertiary institution.
- Non Accredited learning: Prior learning that has taken place at an institution which is not accredited by a recognised accredited agency.
- Life experience learning: Prior learning that has taken place through hands-on experience.

All accredited and non-accredited prior learning MUST be supported with certified/notarized copies of original documents and MUST be returned together with this form.
